

THE SCARY MOMMY Thanksgiving Project 2014

For many families, Thanksgiving Dinner isn't simply a tradition to look forward to; it's a luxury they just can't afford.

The Scary Mommy Thanksgiving Project gives these mothers and their families an evening of food, love and warmth, without the stress and worry they battle the rest of the year.

To date, more than 4,500 families have benefitted from the Thanksgiving Project. Last year alone, we received 2,765 applications and were able to fulfill each and every one.

It's time to do it all again.

Can you join us in giving struggling families a Thanksgiving to be grateful for?
